

Unlock the Beauty of Local Artistry: UTRGV Master of Fine Art Exhibit

Edinburg, TX – Prepare to be transported into a world of creativity as the Sekula Memorial Library proudly presents an exclusive exhibit featuring the talented UTRGV Master of Fine Art students. The exhibit, located at 1906 S. Closner Blvd in Edinburg, invites visitors to immerse themselves in a symphony of artistic expression.

Attendees are invited to join for the grand unveiling on April 18, with a reception from 6 – 8 p.m., offering guests the opportunity to engage with the artists behind the stunning works. This event is open to all, free of charge, promising an evening filled with inspiration and discovery.

Highlighted artists from the UTRGV MFA program include Dominique Flores, Mandy Wilson, Ana Ramos, Dulce Perez, Ruben C. Lozano, Laia Vite, Michel Flores Tavizon, Kelsie Garza, and Andres Rangel. Visitors will have the opportunity to delve into their masterpieces, each a testament to the diverse talents nurtured within the community.

"We are thrilled to showcase the exceptional talent of these emerging artists. Their diverse backgrounds and artistic perspectives have culminated in a captivating collection that celebrates the essence of our community," Michelle Ward, Programs Supervisor said.

From mesmerizing RGV landscapes to captivating sculptures and evocative portraits, each artwork reflects the vibrant spirit and rich cultural heritage of the region. Ward envisions this exhibit as the beginning of a fruitful collaboration between the City and the university, uniting art, education, and community engagement.

Don't miss the chance to experience the beauty of local artistry. The UTRGV MFA Exhibit 2024 will grace the Sekula Memorial Library until May 17, offering free admission to all during regular library hours. Come, be inspired, and celebrate the boundless creativity flourishing within the community. For more information, contact the Cultural Arts Division at 956.383.6246 or visit www.edinburgarts.com.
